Puzzled about Valentine's Day?

Kintnersville, Pennsylvania –October 1, 2007– Rocking Chair Studio released their Valentine's Day KnapZak™ Heart Puzzles for 2008 today. Designed for children ages 5 years and up, these twenty-six piece puzzles include two games within each puzzle plus three special shape puzzle pieces, providing a Valentine's gift to set you apart from the rest.

Who could resist putting together the puzzle, then writing their special message on the back and scrambling the pieces back into the four-inch heart-shaped plastic box? That someone special must assemble the puzzle before they get their Valentine's sentiment. Each puzzle contains several Can You Find?® hidden objects to find. Plus you try to find all the hearts on the puzzle. A label on the back of the heart-shaped box allows the sender to fill in who the heart is for and from whom it came.

“We wanted to produce a product that goes way beyond the ordinary,” says Frank Fabian, Executive Director for Rocking Chair Studio. “Every puzzle builds a better child.”

Rocking Chair Studio's KnapZak™ pocket-sized puzzles are the perfect gift for children ages 5 years and older. Puzzles build critical thinking and reasoning skills that develop into stronger problem solving skills. By incorporating Can You Find?® games within the puzzle, KnapZak™ puzzles continue to challenge the child.

KnapZak™ Valentine's Heart Puzzles are made in the USA. They are available for shipment beginning October 31, 2007. A 12-unit countertop carton presents the Hearts in an easy to see compact display. A shrink-wrap seal keeps the pieces in. The puzzles retail for $4.99
